

Welcome to Kerhonkson Elementary School!

Go Little Ganders!

We have so much to share with you tonight!

- Visit your child's classroom
- Reading and Math: Learn more about our reading and math programs, and how you can help at home
- PBIS: What are our behavior expectations?
- PTA: Find out how you can get involved and support some great events!

Reading Links

Reading every day with your child is important! You play a big role in helping your child become a strong reader. Here are some helpful links to give you some information about reading with your child at home.

Math Links

You play a big role in helping your child become a strong math student as well. Here are some helpful links to give you some fun ways to build math skills with your child at home.

PBIS

PBIS stands for Positive Behavior Intervention Supports. The underlying theme of PBIS is teaching behavioral expectations in the same manner as any core curriculum subject.

PBIS Expectations

PBIS focuses on behavioral expectations that are positively stated and easy to remember.

“ Be Safe

“ Be Respectful

“ Be Responsible

Find out more on our website!

PTA Events

We are lucky to have an amazing PTA here at KES!

We are always looking for volunteers to help out at our events. Signing up to help with just one event makes a huge difference and supports your child's school!

A Day at Kerhonkson Elementary School

We hope you enjoy these images from the first day of school!